WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

NORTH CAROLINA.

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

INTERESTING FACT.—We find, in one of our exchanges, the following paragraph. It will, no doubt, acquaint many of our readers with a interesting fact, which they had never previously observed, and of which few had ever thought!

Seeing is Deceiving.—Here is a row of ordinary capital letters and figures:

OOOOXXXXZZZZ33338888

They are such as are made up of two parts equal shape. Look carefully at these and you will perceive that the upper halves of the characters are a very little smaller than the lower halves—so little that an ordinary eye will declare them to be of equal size. Now turn the page upside down, and, without any careful looking, you will see that the difference in size is very much exaggerated—that the real top half of the figure is very much smaller than the bottom half. It will be seen from this that there is a tendency in the eye to enlarge the upper part of any object upon which it looks. We might draw two circles of unequal sizes, and prove them that they should appear equal.

RETURN FROM COL. J. W. HINTON.—Our old townsman delivered a speech of about two hours length in Elizabeth City last Saturday, as we learn by private advices, which he discussed the great issues of the day, especially in North Carolina, with telling power. Perhaps the best evidence of its success is to be found in the fact that the negroes gave him a serenade on the night of his address.—Norfolk Virginian.

Gen. Grant is still at Galena. We do not know that he is seriously ill, but we fear that he remains speechless.—Louisville Journal.

IRON TIES vs. ROPE.

FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:

"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton, has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3,310 coils against 25,-193 last year."

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEM. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACED FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE NATURE IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN PAWN IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BURNS AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

THE ELECTIONS, TO-DAY.

The elections, in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, excite the most intense concern all over this land. And well they may, for upon their issue depends, perhaps, the very existence of the Republic.

Our friends in those States appear sanguine. Were we to judge from the tenor of their talk, we would be absolutely sure of success. Were we to rest our opinion upon the positive evidences of re-action in the North, upon the vastly improved tone of public feeling in regard to the conduct of the Radical Congress and the ruin which its bad legislation is inflicting upon the material interests of the whole country—the oppressive taxation, the wholesale waste, extravagance and peculation carried on under the sanction and connivance of the ruling party—we should raise a shout of rejoicing, in anticipation of the great victory which the Constitution, civil liberty and right would obtain to-day. But the country, the masses of the people, North and every where, for a few years, have been made to feel that there is a power in money, heretofore unfelt and unknown, which triumphs over conviction, and right and duty and principle, positively irresistible, on account of the pinching necessities of the pockets of the people, produced by the wretched and crushing financial policy of the money power in the country.

Wall Street and the bondholders and capitalists of New England are making, and have been making, for years, a deadly fight against the liberties of the people of the United States, and striving and looking for just such a triumph over our masses as the money power of the old world has gained and secured over the toiling masses of Europe. The money power of Great Britain and the continent, having subjected Europe to its control, is lending its aid to the money power of the United States, and our fear is, that, before the people of this country are awake to the real causes which control the government of Europe, this government will share the same fate.

In order to carry the election in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, in the interests of Radicalism, immense sums of money have been furnished by the bondholders and capitalists, and have been scattered through those States. It has been difficult to raise money among the Conservatives and Democrats, for the reason that the masses have it not, and the wealthy bondholders and capitalists are pandering to the money power.

We mention these facts to show our friends, that if we are beaten in the great contest in November, which we do not believe or anticipate, it will be by the money power of the country, determined upon the subjugation of the people to its control.—These facts, while they will prevent our people from being too sanguine as to the results of the elections, to-day, should only nerve them the more to exert themselves in resisting this power, and rallying to the rescue of civil liberty and the Constitution from its crushing grasp!

THE MARE'S NEST.

We felt quite sure, when we read the correspondence between Holden and Gen. Miles, that willing witnesses, to make a "tempest in a tea pot," had misled them and excited fears which have no real foundation. The whole correspondence is based upon a state of things, which, perhaps, they desired might really exist, but which, in truth, has no substance, and hence the concatenation of mere truisms which fill it. The views of General Miles, under the circumstances which he assumes, might be well enough, but the intelligent Democrat in North Carolina, as he reads his letter, will find himself asking the questions: What does he mean? Who are hostile to the goverment? What organizations does he mean are arming themselves for hostile movements against the National and State Governments? Who want to interfere with the freedom of elections? Who are disposed to provoke riot? Are Democrats and Conservatives meant? He will exclaim, it is all bosh! It is a mere attempt to cover up the movements of the Leagues and the Radicals!

It so happened, when we first saw the correspondence, that an intelligent and leading active Democrat from Charlotte was in our office. We asked him, what ground there was for the assertion, that any Democratic organization in his city was ordering arms, and arming, to oppose the government? Said he, "That is news to me. I have heard nothing of it." He alluded to the rumor that the Leagues were receiving arms, but had paid no attention to it.

We repeat the telegram, which we received on Saturday night, from Newbern, in reply to the reference to that city, in this remarkable Holden-Miles correspondence. The Standard SUPPRESSED that telegram, as it frequently does telegrams likely to trip the heels of its party. That is its policy. It conceals every thing from its readers, which would open their eyes. The Newbern telegram is a "sockdolager," a complete reply to the whole insinuation in reference to that city. Here it is:

NEWBERN, Oct. 10, P. M.

"In the correspondence between General Miles and Gov. Holden of this State, the latter states that a box of arms was recently found concealed in this city belonging to a certain political organization. The arms referred to were found in a house used for the meetings of the Union League and were concealed in a coffin. Several coffins, supposed to contain arms, have recently been sent out in the country, by prominent Radicals in this vicinity."

It is well known that what of arms was left by the Confederates, in our midst, the Federal authorities deprived our white people of, (even their shot guns and pistols,) at the close of the war. Sherman's bummers left us hardly a walking cane. The pistols and shot guns taken by them were either sold or given to the negroes. In this condition our people have remained, except where a few individuals have been able to replace them, either for purposes of hunting or protecting their premises from robbery and devastation. In some instances, our planters and others have been assailed by such numbers of robbers, in squads, that an ordinary weapon would be useless. Some few persons have been able to supply themselves with the best possible defence.—They are right. We wish every man in the State was able to protect his dwelling against such marauders and robbers, as have been encouraged by the Radicals to rob, burn and kill our people. Seventeen or twenty shooters may be needed to put a stop to it, unless the Radical leaders cease their incendiary and wicked counsels.—Were they disposed to do their duty—to consult reason, humanity and law, in their counsels to the blacks and others,—there would be no need of defensive weapons for the protection of our dwellings and our property; nay, there would be no need of troops of any kind.

ONE OR 'TOTHER.—"Richard Ramsey, Esq.," a negro magistrate in Pittsboro', received, last week, a letter stamped on the envelope "State of North Carolina, Executive Department," and franked by "Jno. T. Dewese, M. C." Now either the "Executive Department" is using Dewesse's frank or it is giving its Department envelopes to some one else, who is using the frank aforesaid. In either case, an official abuse.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN ROBESON.—The Democratic Mass Meeting at Shoe Heel, in Robeson, County, on Thursday last, was a great success. It is estimated that 2,500 persons were present. It is said that no meeting ever held in that portion of the State will compare with it in point of enthusiasm and numbers.

CASWELL.—The Democrats of Caswell have nominated Thos. J. Brown, Esq., for the State Senate, vice Hon. Bedford Brown, declared to be ineligible under the Howard Amendment. Eloquent speeches were made at the nominating meeting by Messrs. Wm. Long, Hodnett, Kerr, Thos. Ruffin and A. M. Scales.

THE MILTON Chronicle says that "Windy Billy" was in Yanceyville, last week, in attendance on Court, but the Editor, (who was also there,) having no occasion to go into a kitchen, didn't see him!

MICA ISINGLASS.—Any person owning lands in this State, upon which Mica or Isinglass can be obtained in considerable quantity, can make his possessions profitable by communicating with Rev. Dr. B. Craven, President of Trinity College, giving location and particulars generally.

THE GREAT MASS MEETING IN SALISBURY—HON. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Four thousand people were present at the great Mass Meeting in Salisbury, on Thursday last.

At 11 o'clock, a procession, preceded by a fine band of music, marched through the principal streets, and finally halted in a beautiful grove, where a stand had been erected and where seats had been provided for the ladies.

The Hon. Jno. Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts,—a worthy scion of an illustrious stock,—having been introduced to the audience, was the first speaker. He made a long and able speech, in which he alluded to the misapprehensions that prevailed at the North as to the real condition of things down South. For his own part, he had long been satisfied that these charges were groundless, but he wanted to return North with a positive contradiction of the various false charges which were being circulated to the prejudice of the Southern people.—He therefore propounded the enquiries whether the people of North Carolina were determined to submit in good faith to the results of the war,—whether they regarded the questions of secession and slavery as settled,—whether bona fide settlers would be well received and kindly treated in the event of their immigration to this State,—whether they are willing to accord the colored people all their rights, (he did not consider suffrage a right, but only a privilege,) and protect them in the exercise of the same as fully as the whites were protected in theirs.

Col. Cowan and Gov. Vance, each, in admirably candid and pointed speeches, answered all of these interrogatories plainly and decidedly in the affirmative, and gave a correct and explicit expose of the sentiments, feelings and purposes of the white people of the State. We learn from the Old North State that Col. Cowan said—and Gov. Vance endorsed what he said, and the large audience endorsed, as every true man in North Carolina will endorse, what both said:

"The people of North Carolina submitted in good faith to the results of the war. They regarded the question of slavery and secession, and so did the New York platform, as having been settled for all time by the war, and for the future they wished to live in peace under the Constitution and laws of the United States, with the same rights and privileges enjoyed by the people of the Northern States. They could not restore slavery if they would and would not if they could. This, he felt sure, was the universal sentiment of the people of this State. All bona fide settlers from the Northern States, or from any other country, would be kindly received and heartily welcomed here. We wished them to come with their capital, their skill and their industry to assist us in the development of our resources and in the reconstruction of our ruined fortunes.—The only class of Northern men to whom we objected, and against whom we had any prejudices, was that class of unprincipled adventurers, familiarly known as "Carpet Baggers," who come here not as settlers, but for the purpose of holding the offices of our State government by means of the votes of the negroes, whom they deceived and deluded into voting for them by means of falsehood and duplicity.

As to the colored people, he said that we were willing to secure them in all of their civil rights to the same extent that they were secured to the white people, and that we were willing to confer upon them such political privileges as they were capable of exercising—that we were willing to confer upon them all political privileges that they enjoyed in the States of New York and Massachusetts."

Mr. Adams then announced that he intended to go home and disabuse the Northern mind, so far as he could, of the false impressions under which it labored, and paid an eloquent tribute to our people.

Gov. Vance and Col. Cowan, Col. R. F. Armfield, of Wilkes, P. F. Duffy, Esq., F. E. Shober and W. M. Robbins, Esqrs., made eloquent speeches during the day and night.

At night there was a grand Torchlight Procession and display of fireworks.

For the Sentinel.

Seymour and Blair in Wilkes.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting, of the citizens of Wilkes, held in Lewis' Fork District, on Thursday, the 30th, of September, 1868, Rev. R. Jacks was called to the Chair, and G. F. McNeill was appointed Secretary.

The Chair explained the object of the meeting, in a very brief and appropriate manner.

On motion, the Chair appointed a Committee of five to draft and report resolutions, expressive of the sentiment of the Convention.

Whilst waiting for the report of the Committee, the meeting was addressed by Rev. William Church and Rev. R. Jacks, of Wilkes, who earnestly warned their friends to beware of the Radical party.

The Committee on Resolutions, through its Chairman, G. F. McNeill, submitted the following report, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the harmony which characterized the National Convention, at the City of New York, on the 4th. of July last, and the good feeling with which Delegates from the whole Union met to counsel together for the good of the country, are sources of gratification to all who desire fraternal relations between the sections of the Union, lately divided by strife; and we heartily endorse the Platform of Principles adopted by that Convention, as eminently national and well calculated to restore the government to its Constitutional position and preserve the liberties of our people,

Resolved, That we recognize in the Hon. Horatio Seymour, of New York, and Frank P. Blair, of Missouri, Statesmen of virtue and ability, well qualified to restore the country to its ancient integrity, and we cordially endorse their nomination for President and Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, That we heartily concur in the nomination of the Hon. F. E. Shober, of Rowan, for Congress for this Congressional District.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Sentinel for publication.

R. JACKS, Chairman.
G. F. MCNEILL, Secretary.

A New Orleans paper says that the proprietor of an extensive trunk establishment denounces the course of the democratic papers in that city, though an unmitigated democrat himself. He has a large variety of carpet bags on hands, and has been unable to sell a solitary one for many weeks, though offered at the lowest price of the manufacturer. Many travelling men will rather shoulder a trunk than carry an easy, portable concern that conveys so much political significance.

EXEMPTIONS IN BANKRUPTCY.

We are indebted to a legal friend for the following decision, rendered by Judge Brooks, at a recent Term of the District Court, relative to the matter of Exemptions in Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER OF A. B., BANKRUPT. } In Bankruptcy.

At Elizabeth City, in the District of North Carolina, on the 5th. day of October, 1868:

The question submitted by Mr. Register Lehman, in this case, is: Can an Assignee of an estate in Bankruptcy set apart money, which was not surrendered as money by the Bankrupt, but which is or may be realized by the said Assignee from the sale of choses in action, or other property scheduled and surrendered by him, under the provisions for the exemption of certain property to the Bankrupt, contained in the act of 1867?

I have, heretofore, in re Jno. W. Farish, certified from the 4th. District, decided that a homestead could not be exempted to the Bankrupt claimed by him under the act of 1858-'59, when the party claiming it had not complied with all the provisions of said Act; and in another case that real estate was not properly embraced within the meaning of the terms, Articles or Necessaries, as used in the 14th. Section of the Bankruptcy Act.

But now the question is presented, can money be assigned and paid by the Assignee to the Bankrupt, as an exemption, which money is to be acquired by the Assignee from the sales of any property which comes to him as Assignee?

To enable us to arrive at a correct conclusion upon this question, it is proper that we should enquire, in the first place, how the Assignee derives his title to the property of the Bankrupt.

The answer is, that he derives his title by virtue of the Bankruptcy Act, and the assignment made to him by the Judge or Register pursuant thereto.

Secondly, We should enquire what is the character of the title he thus acquires to the property of the Bankrupt.

It is clear, I think, that, as to the real estate, the Assignee takes an estate to himself and his heirs; and, as to the personalty, an estate to himself and his executors and administrators.

Thirdly, For what uses and purposes does he take the estate?

The Assignee takes the estate of the Bankrupt, under the law, first to sell the real and personal property and collect the choses in action, and, in this way, reduce the estate to money. If he cannot collect the debts due the Bankrupt, he may sell such choses in action as the Court may order. When he has thus reduced the estate to money, he is required by law to deposit the same, or pay the same out as the Court may direct, in the payment and satisfaction of liens, mortgages, dividends and costs of the proceedings.

Fourthly, What property of the Bankrupt does the Assignee thus acquire title to, and for the uses and purposes mentioned?

The answer to this question is furnished us by the 14th section of the Act. The first clause of this section, being the 46th general clause of the act, declares that when the assignment is made as provided, thereupon, by operation of law, the title to all such property and estate, both real and personal, shall vest in said Assignee, and it declares that all the estate of the Bankrupt, both real and personal, shall be thus conveyed and shall thus pass to the Assignee, except only as thereinafter provided for in the 47th general clause.

Now it only remains, I think, to be ascertained what is excepted, by a fair construction of the last clause referred to, from the operation of the conveyance of the Assignee.

This clause declares, first, that the necessary household and kitchen furniture, and such other articles and necessaries of such Bankrupt as the Assignee shall designate and set apart, altogether not to exceed in any case the value of five hundred dollars, shall be exempt,—that is excluded—from the provisions of this section; that such property, so designated and set apart, shall not in any way be affected by the conveyance to the Assignee or the title thereto pass; and a subsequent clause of the Act, as if to leave no room for doubt, declares that the title of the Bankrupt shall not in any way be affected or disturbed by any of the provisions of the Act as to any of the property thus exempted and set apart under the provisions of the law embraced in these exceptions. Also there is other property, as the wearing apparel of the Bankrupt and his family, and such property as is exempted from seizure or sale by a creditor, by the laws of the United States or the laws of the State, in which the Bankrupt resides, which were in force in the year 1864.

If the money attempted to be assigned by the Assignee in this case, and which was to be realized by sales as aforesaid, can be construed to be within the meaning of the 47th. clause, then it is good, as an exemption; otherwise, it is not, and the Assignee would be bound to account for the same strictly, in discharging the cases and trusts upon which he took the title to the property, from the sales of which the money was realized.

Now I think it quite clear, that the Assignee could have assigned to the Bankrupt a horse, stock of any kind, a bond, note or account, any article of personal property, and even money, if the Bankrupt had scheduled and surrendered such property, to make up any deficiency that might exist, in his judgment, after valuing and assigning the necessary household and kitchen furniture; for all those are articles and may be to some Bankrupt necessaries. But when any such article of property is actually assigned or designated, the title to the same does not pass from the Bankrupt, by force of the assignment. Therefore, the title to no article of property, so designated, if within the meaning of the law, ever vests in the Assignee. He could not then sell or dispose of such property, and no one could do so, save the Bankrupt.

My opinion is that the title to all the property of the Bankrupt, of every description, and all the title he held in the same, passed to the Assignee, except the title to that household and kitchen furniture and such other articles and necessaries as have been designated and assigned under the law to the Bankrupt, and such other property as is specially exempted to him; and having so passed, the assignee cannot pay to the Bankrupt any money arising from the sales of such, made by him, and, if he should do so, such payment would be a defalcation on his part and he would be answerable over for the same.

Suppose the Legislature of North Carolina, in making the humane provisions enacted for the temporary relief of widows and families of intestates, had stopped short of that provision which enables the Commissioners, in case of a deficiency of crops, stock, and provisions for the support of the widow and family, for one year, that they shall proceed to assess the value of the deficiency—which sum, so assessed, shall be paid to the widow, in money, by the administrator,—could such administrator conclude that sufficient had not been assigned her of property and pay out of the proceeds of the sales of property in his hands as administrator any amount in money to make up the deficiency? Certainly he could not.

And no more can an Assignee in bankruptcy pay to a Bankrupt any money which comes to his hands, arising from the sales of property, which property was not exempted, but the title to which passed to him under the assignment. And the reason is that there is no provision in the law authorizing such payment.

Let this be certified to R. F. Lehman, Register.

Handsome Property for Sale.

WILL BE SOLD, on Tuesday, the 27th of October, 1868, at Auction, before the Court House in Tarboro', that very desirable residence lately owned by Jos. W Wimberly, Esq., situated about 4 miles from the town of Tarboro', and within five hundred yards of McNair's crossing on the Tarboro' Branch Railroad.
The Tract consists of
of first-class Piney Woods Land, about 20 acres cleared, balance in original forest growth. The soil is finely adapted to the cultivation of COTTON, CORN and Vegetables. A beautiful Truck or Fruit Farm could be made of it. Several scuppernong Vines in bearing and a choice lot of selected Peach, Pear, and Apple Trees adjoining the residence.
The Dwelling, a modern built house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with wide passage on first floor and verandas in front and rear, is handsomely located in a grove of two acres. A well of purest cold water on the premises. Every necessary out-house, all in a fine state of preservation. This place is situated in a proverbially healthy country, chills and fever being almost unknown, and is about the centre of one of the finest neighborhoods in the county. A residence combining so many advantages is seldom in the market.
Possession given on 1st January, 1869.
Terms—Twelve months credit, with interest from that date.
On same day and same terms, Jos. W. Wimberly's one-fourth remainder interest in the Wilson Tract of Land, and his one-fourth remainder interest in the Harrison Land

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 46,753.
With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,
I am, respectfully,
HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.
In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No.	15 273	$5.000

Several changes have been made in the above, to conform them to appointments previously made in Chatham. Our friends will please note them. J. J. Davis, Esq., candidate for Elector, and Col. E. G. Haywood will be at Pittsboro' on the 31st.—Maj. York, H. K. Nash, Esq., and others, are expected to be at Buckhorn on the 31st.

Messrs. Dowdee and McDonald are invited to be present at these meetings. The time will be divided with them.

TICKETS! TICKETS!!

Don't forget to supply yourselves with tickets. The Clubs or Executive Committee of each County must look out for this, and the candidates must not omit it.

The Electoral ticket, Congressional ticket, and if a vacancy in the Senate or House of Representatives is to be filled, in any of the Districts, the ticket for Senator or Representative, must be all on the same slip or ballot. Those who order tickets must be sure to give especial directions, name, County or District for the Congressional or Legislative ticket. The Electoral ticket will be the same all over the State.

We will print plain tickets or ballots, on the ordinary paper, for $2 per 1,000. On colored paper, with flags, for $3 per thousand. The cash must accompany the order.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—We are requested to state that the regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, for October, will be held at the Session room of the Presbyterian Church, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is earnestly requested.

REV. DR. KINGSBURY, of Tenn., Corresponding Secretary of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board, located at Memphis, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist Church, in this city, on Sunday morning last. The discourse delivered on that occasion, was one of great power, on the inability of all earthly things, contrasted with the fixedness of heavenly or eternal things—affording full scope for the display of the talents of this gifted son of North Carolina.

PERSONAL.—We were gratified, on yesterday, to receive a visit from our excellent cotemporary, Capt. Wm. Biggs, of the Tarboro Southerner. The able journal over which he presides is doing valuable service in the good cause and we hope is being properly appreciated by the people of the East.

"FLING OUT THE BANNER!"—The flagpole in front of Democratic Headquarters was radiant with banners on yesterday.—Two handsome flags and the Seymour and Blair pennant floated from it all day, presenting a beautiful appearance.

NORFOLK COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.—At a meeting held in this City, on yesterday, the following gentlemen were appointed delegates, on the part of the City and County, to attend the Commercial Convention in Norfolk, viz: Messrs. A. M. McPheeters, L. B. Adams, Seaton Gales, W. G. Upchurch, Douglas Bell, W. B. Miller, J. M. Blair, Jno. R. Williams, C. B. Reed, Needham Price, A. T. Mial, R. B. Haywood and R. C. Badger. A. M. McPheeters, Esq., who was also Chairman of the meeting, was appointed Chairman of the delegation.

"THE LAND WE LOVE."—The following compliment from a distant and highly reputable source to Gen. Hill's admirable Magazine is as handsome as it is just. We copy the following from the Federal Union, published at Rochester, Minnesota:

"The October number of this magazine is received. It circulation ought to be rapidly increasing, as it is certainly growing in value, and is now one of the ablest monthlies in the United States—a single number possessing more substantial literary merit, more truth and better logic, than are contained in all the monthly and weekly journals of a sickly and dwarfed "civilization" that have been issued by the Harper Bros., since the Africanization of their opinions. The appreciation and generous support of such periodicals as The Land We Love will afford one of the best evidences we could have of the dawn of a better era upon our bonded, taxed and negro ridden land."

NORFOLK COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

We have received several invitations, from our friends in Norfolk, to attend the Commercial Convention to be held in that city, on to-morrow, the 14th inst. The Associate Editor of the Sentinel will be in attendance, and will form one of the party of delegates from this city.

The objects of the Convention are of the great est importance to the material interests of that large scope of country in Virginia, the West and North Carolina, which is in communication with Norfolk, and which seeks direct intercourse with Europe. The efforts of leading men in Norfolk and Virginia, to establish this direct trade between Norfolk and Europe, deserve eminent success. Already the test which has been made establishes the feasibility and utility of the scheme, and we hope the results of this Convention will open the door to the establishment of such direct intercourse with Europe, as will justify and embolden our own Eastern bankers, Wilmington and Morehead City, to co-operate with, and follow, if desirable, the example of Norfolk.

The barren and prostrate pecuniary condition of the South presents a formidable barrier to the success of almost any Southern enterprise; yet our poverty must not deter us from exerting every nerve to improve our commercial condition and make us, to some extent, independent, in the pursuit of commerce and intercourse with Europe. Well directed skill in the projection of our enterprise, and the energy which our necessities ought to develope, ought to build a near and efficient highway, through Virginia and North Carolina, for the rich products of the great West bordering on the lower Mississippi and its tributaries, to the Atlantic, and to furnish ready means for their quick transportation to Europe.

The encouragement we have to hope for a change in our political status should stimulate us to work on and to struggle for commercial and pecuniary life. The election of Seymour and Blair would impart new vigor and enterprise to our people. Cheap money, a low rate of interest, the restoration of confidence, and equal and low taxation, are what is needed all over the country to effect restoration and recuperation. To this must the financial policy of the government come, before the wasted fields of the South can be restored, and before the South can bear her share of the burdens of the government.

To the coming elections and to the effects of the Commercial Convention at Norfolk, and all similar ones, we look with hopeful confidence.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal —"Judge" Watts presiding,—holds over the present week.

The case thus far before the Court, which excited the greatest interest, was that of State vs. Jno. A. Long,—indictment for libel. The alleged libel was contained in a communication addressed by Mr. Long, the Sheriff of Richmond county, to Governor Worth, during his incumbency, charging W. F. Leak, Esq., who had been requested by the Governor to distribute the Maryland charitable donations, with a misappropriation of the same. After the trial had been protracted through several days, at a very heavy expense to the county, the case was dismissed by the "Judge," on a point of law, which might very well have been adjudicated in the incipiency of the trial. The point of dismissal was that the letter addressed to the Governor by the Sheriff was a privileged communication, and, on that account, not libellous.

On Saturday, John Henry McCullers, colored, was put on trial for an alleged rape upon the person of a colored girl. General Cox, the Solicitor, assisted by "Attorney General" Coleman, appeared for the State, and Messrs. R. W. York, J. B. Batchelor and Quent Busbee for the defence. The Jury, composed exclusively of white men and former slave holders, after a retirement of only a few minutes, brought in a verdict of acquittal.

There are several capital cases, we learn, to be tried the present week. Willis, the negro soldier, who murdered Anderson Selby, in this city, last winter, will receive the sentence of death during the week. Having been convicted and the Supreme Court having refused to grant a new trial.

"HANDBOOK FOR COUNTY OFFICERS."—We are indebted to Messrs. Nichols & Gorman, the Publishers, for a copy of the volume bearing this title. It contains the law and regulation to Superior Court Clerks, Magistrates, Sheriff, and all the County officers in the Code of Civil Procedure and other enactments, with the necessary forms adapted to the Code; also a complete list of the State and County officers, the time of holding Courts in each County, the fee bill, &c. It makes a volume of over 200 pages, the typography is very handsome, and it is published at the low price of $2.

This book is an indispensable vade mecum for the public and will be in very great demand. Applications for copies should be made at once.

WE HAVE been requested to announce that Josiah Turner, Jr., will proceed to publish a paper in this city, as soon as a list of 2,000 subscribers can be obtained. He has made arrangements with Messrs. Nichols & Gorman to begin immediately upon such a list being filled out—the money to be paid upon the receipt of the first number of said paper. The Prospectus will be published hereafter.

GEN. DIX.—The secret of Gen. Dix's hostility to Gov. Seymour has been disclosed. When Gen. Dix was military commander of New York, in 1864, he seized the offices of the World and Journal of Commerce, and imprisoned their editors. After holding the offices and the editors two days, the Federal authorities, becoming alarmed at the signs of popular indignation, ordered the parties to be released.

For this lawless proceeding and outrage on the rights of citizens, Gov. Seymour, then Governor of New York, had Dix arrested and held to bail as a public offender. Dix has never forgotten nor forgiven this curb upon his tyranny. Hence his malignant letter.

For the Sentinel.

Menninger—Dewese—"Franking."

"MACON COUNTY, N. C., Oct. 7.

Messrs. Bell & Sales:—In the Standard of the 30th ult., is a card, signed J. H. Menninger, Secretary of State, bearing date Sept. 25th, 1868. He says he writes, to reply to an "infamous correspondence" in the Sentinel of that day. His article is a fair exhibit of "youthful indiscretion." He is precipitate, inconsiderate, very careless in his positive declarations. He writes, as if he had a blatant falsehood to deal with, as if the article was unworthy of his distinguished consideration, as if he was a whale disposing of insultingly, and winds up with a flourish which seems to say "I've fixed him up brown!" Doubtless this is the impression the "silly-putty" wish'd to make, and it is evident but a repose of his "official corruption" here. His assumed dignity has no real foundation, and, in truth, I have never seen anything from a great functionary of State, and admitted "proficient in manner," so entirely puerile.

What he says by "article" is "infamous."—Why so? In what respect? Is it infamous to allude to what seems to be "official corruption?" This is all I did. My strictures were enquiries, no more, and he says, if there is any sense in his "card," that to even enquire into his official acts, is "infamous." He admits all I say as true, denies nothing, and tries, but fails signally, to explain away this seeming corruption, and shows to me clearly, if he shows anything, that he and Dewese have been engaged in a picayune swindle. Hence, I infer it is, in Radical estimation, "infamous," for a pickaxe to expose corruption in office in high places.

Now let his explanation. This is a specious bit of sophistry, but exceeding thin and shazy. He says over 10,000 pamphlets have been mailed to members of the General Assembly, since the Legislature adjourned, and the postage on all, except 40 or 50, prepaid in U. S. stamps. But why were these not prepaid? Let the Secretary answer. He says, in his absence, his Clerk—here is the scape-goat—asked and obtained Col. Dewese's "frank." He pleads the ignorance and inexperience of his Clerk. He knew better, and tried to remedy the wrong at the Post office in your city. But what of Dewese? Was he, like the Clerk, ignorant too, stupid or corrupt? The Hon. Secretary puts the Hon. Dewese in a very undesirable position.

Again, Menninger says this was done in his absence "last week." When? "Last week." And then he says, this is the "only instance," in which documents were sent from his office, without prepayment of the postage. Now, if this was true, he stands blameless. But it is not true. The gentleman has been from home again. His Clerk and Dewese have been playing other fantastic tricks, that he seems not to know of. Indeed, I apprehend the Secretary has been "absent," most of the time, since the Legislature adjourned, for of the many laws sent to, and through the office at Franklin, all were "franked," except those by the last mail. Of all the documents sent to Dr. Love, our Senator, not "40 or 50 pamphlets," but more than 200, done up in ten or twelve bundles or packages, all were "franked."—When were these mailed? "Last week?" No sirs. But every week, from the 24th of August, to the date of his "card." Then this "last week," to which he refers, is not the "only instance," in which documents have been franked from his office.

Suppose, Messrs. Editors, that all other members have been favored with the "frank," as has been Dr. Love; then the 10,000 documents, "except 40 or 50," have been sent out without pre-payment of postage. On Dr. Love's last, there were 22 cents in U. S. postage. But that is all uncle Sam has paid on his.

The Secretary speaks of "scandal mongers," "belching vast traducing public men. Oh me! Do I scandalize, libel or traduce any one, when I point out "official corruption" which Menninger failed to explain away? Honest men and natives will not think so. Scallawags and carpet baggers may. This difference of opinion is perfectly natural in both. But who are the "public men," to whom he alludes? Does mixing powders, rolling pills, selling drugs, taking the bankrupt, being elected by bayonets, and illegal use of the "franking" privilege, make a thing, a public man? North Carolinians spurn and scorn such notoriety.

But he says not any "reminiscence." This is really unkind. How could I be other wise, living in the mountains? He says, "the Secretary charges no postage." Then, I reckon, he charges some pos age. But don't whisper that. He'll be blowing about my ignorance again. He says he "charges no postage at all, but simply makes a requisition for stamps." Then, why the devil don't he "use them," instead of "Dewese, M. C.?"

Yours, X

GEN. CLINGMAN.—In attempting to break the force of the masterly address of this distinguished gentleman, the Raleigh Standard, the cowardly defender of character, from the slanderous attacks of which neith ever has ago for distinguished services will save its victims, says of Gen. Clingman: "The only wound he received during the war was a sprained ankle, caused by a fall from a refractory horse in the streets of the secession town of Goldsboro', at a very safe distance from the detested Yankee borders." A more cowardly falsehood was never written. There was no officer who rendered more efficient service in the defence of Petersburg than Gen. Clingman. On one occasion his gallant brigade alone protected that city from the assaults of Generals Butler and Kautz.

In August, 1864, in a desperate and successful assault upon General Grant's left, entrenched upon the Weldon Rail road, he received a very severe wound in a gallant charge against the works of the Federal troops from which he yet suffers. General Clingman remained in Petersburg, several months confined to his bed, under treatment, and we frequently visited him there, and were a witness of much of his sufferings, as we were of his patient toil in the trenches and his gallantry on the field. None but moral and physical cowards would misrepresent the services of others to their country, and, except with those who were too timid to meet the dangers of the service themselves, such dishonorable tactics are not resorted to in attacks upon political opponents.—Wil. Journal.

"A NEGRO SOLD AT AUCTION IN NEW YORK.—The Hudson Gazette relates an incident illustrating the "Let the poor negro" feeling in these Abolition times. The truth of this statement is vouched for by the above mentioned journal:

"On the 1st instant a colored woman living at Chatham Four Corners, New York, put up her son at auction, at her house, as a substitute, and sold him to the highest bidder. The lad, who was a good-looking robust young darkey, was started at $500, and ran up to $1,000, at which sum he was knocked down to a lawyer of that village."

Well may a cotemporary ask, "Where is Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, who has wept rivers of crocodile tears over Southern slave auctions?"—N. Y. Express, 20th Aug. 1864.

How to bother a carpet-bagger—ask him the name of the sheriff or jailer of the county he migrated from.

IMPORTANT ORDER FROM GEN. GRANT—THE GOVERNOR OF WEST VIRGINIA CALLS FOR TROOPS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12, P. M.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10, 1868.

GENERAL ORDER

The following provisions from the Constitution and laws of the United States, in relation to the election of a President and Vice President of the United States, together with an act of Congress prohibiting all persons engaged in the Military and Naval service from interfering in any general or special election in any State, are published for the information and government of all concerned:

[The following are the authorities quoted: Article 2nd, Section 1st, of the Constitution. Article 12th, of Amendments to the Constitution. Act of Congress relating to the election of President, and Vice President, approved March 1st, 1792. An act to establish uniform time for elections of Presidential electors, approved January 23th 1845. An act compensating the persons appointed as electors, approved July 11th, 1825.]

The order concludes:

An Act to prevent officers of the Army and Navy and other persons engaged in the Military and Naval service of the United States from interfering in elections in States.

Be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Military or Naval officer of the United States, or other persons engaged in civil, military or naval service of the United States, to order, bring, keep, or have under his authority, or control, any troops or armed men at the place where any general or special election is to be held, in any State of the United States, unless it shall be necessary to repel armed enemies of the United States, or to keep peace at the polls; and that it shall not be lawful for any officer of the Army or Navy of the United States to prescribe or fix or attempt to prescribe or fix, by proclamation, order or otherwise, the qualification of voters in any State of the United States, or in any manner to interfere with the freedom of any election in any State, or with the exercise of free right of suffrage in any State of the United States.

Any officer of the Army or Navy of the United States, or other person engaged in the Civil, Military or Naval service of the United States, who violates this section, shall, for every such offence, be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor in any Court of the United States, having jurisdiction to hear, try and determine cases of misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall pay a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars and suffer imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than three months, nor more than five years, at the discretion of the Court trying the same; and any person convicted as aforesaid shall moreover be disqualified from holding any office of honor, profit or trust under the government of the United States:

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent any officers, soldiers, s flors or marines, from exercising the right of suffrage in any election District to which he may belong, or, otherwise qualified, according to the laws of the State in which he shall offer to vote.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted That any officer or person in the Military or Naval service, who shall, directly or indirectly, by force, threat or menace, intimidate or otherwise prevent, or attempt to prevent, any qualified voter of any State of the United States from freely exercising the right of suffrage, at any general or special election in any State of the U. S., or who shall, in like manner, compel or attempt to compel any officer of an election in such State to receive a vote, or who shall impose or attempt to impose any rules or regulations for conducting such election different from those prescribed by law, or to interfere in any manner with any officer of said election in discharge of his duties, shall, for any such offence, be liable to indictment for misdemeanor in any court of the United States, having jurisdiction to hear, try and determine cases of misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars and suffer imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding five years, at the discretion of the Court trying the same, and any person convicted as aforesaid shall moreover be disqualified from holding any office of honor, profit or trust, under the Government of the United States.

Approved February 25th, 1865.

BY COMMAND OF GEN. GRANT,
E. O. TOWNSEND,
A. A. G

Gov. Boreman, of West Virginia, is here. He wants troops for the election. He thinks the moral effect of a few companies will answer his purpose.

Noticing the President's order, of to-day, the Star says:

"In Republican quarters, it seems to be apprehended that, in the unrepresented States, the Conservatives will now make arrangements to choose Presidential Electors, and that President Johnson will demand that their votes be counted."

FROM PHILADELPHIA—GREAT EXCITEMENT.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12, P. M.

Business is almost suspended. Each party is parading with bands of music, urging friends to vote early.

The Mayor, who is a Republican, has sworn in one thousand extra policemen for to-morrow.

The Sheriff, who is a Democrat, has sworn in one thousand Deputies. A week ago, the Sheriff ordered one thousand hickory clubs for his Deputies. The House, where the clubs were stored, was burned last night.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That so this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this state, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION:

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United states as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the labo rer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great element of corruption and political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good, the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of the principle of the right of expatriation as inherent in the nature of all free governments, and the abrogation of the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After this most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected the States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted military seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has subverted the American capitol into a fortress; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and flagitious charges preferred against the President. Its corruptions and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any state of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if successful by the people will subvert one form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the states will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against rebellion, deserve at the hands of the people the gratitude due to their patriotic services and sacrifices, and can never be forgotten by a free people; that all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the powers of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the states and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently be leve they will be enclosed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partisans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule, without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the federal candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our duty now, as we have been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the government of the United States a cheerful submission, and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of disunionists everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper. Its circulation is extensive and increasing, and it is a capital advertising sheet. We have no better paper in the State. Price of Daily, $10 per annum. Weekly $5.—Address ENGELHARD & PRICE,
Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE MORNING STAR, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is a young Daily, still in its first volume and, by its sprightliness and energy, has a growing circulation. It is a warm supporter of Seymour and Blair, and is doing good service. It is a good medium for advertisers and merits the patronage of the public. Price of Daily $5 per year. Address W. H. BERNARD,
Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

DAILY ROUGH NOTES, GOLDSBORO', N. C.

This is a sprightly little Daily, and is thoroughly Democratic. It is located in the Cotton region of the State, and is a good advertising medium. It works manfully for Seymour and Blair. Price $6 per annum. Address J. A. BONITZ,
Goldsboro', Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE SOUTHERNER, TARBORO' N. C.

Our friend, Capt. Elgin, is giving to the public a capital Weekly, ardent in its advocacy of Democratic principles. It is located in the rich Cotton County of Edgecombe, and in one of the prettiest villages of the State, among an energetic people. It has a good circulation and advertising patronage. Price $3 per annum. WM. RIGGS,
Tarboro', Sept 4-tf Proprietor.

SEMI-WEEKLY INDEX, HENDERSON, N. C.

This is an excellent Conservative journal, conducted with spirit and energy, and well deserves its patronage of the public. It is located on the Raleigh & Gas on Railroad, in a fine Wheat and Tobacco region, and is an excellent advertising medium. Its terms are moderate. It is now published weekly at $3 per annum, and on the 24 of October the Semi-Weekly will be issued at $5 per annum. Address FURMAN & NEWBY,
Henderson, N. C., Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE RECORDER, HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

Dennis Heartt, Esq., the oldest Editor living in the South, continues to publish the Recorder, and, though nearly ninety years of age, performs the duties of Editor and Foreman of his office. His paper indicates the quiet, truthful and reliable character of its Editor. It stands up for the Constitution and the Union, and supports Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address DENNIS HEARTT.
Sept. 9-tf

ROANOKE NEWS, WELDON, N. C.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $260 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.
